

STEALING CINDERELLA

HOW I BECAME AN INTERNATIONAL FUGITIVE FOR LOVE

MARK D. DIEHL

PREVIEW 23

I was getting better at teaching. Classes told me about issues in Korea, and I drew more details out of them with questions, correcting grammar and pronunciation as I went.

The discussions were always predictable. Most of the volunteers were traditionalist, and when I called on people to find out what they thought, almost everyone fell in line. If any of them expressed a dissenting opinion, the others ganged up. As every topic ran its course, I found myself wondering what Jennifer's take on it would have been.
